SOLAR ECLIPSE

Photograph of the Eclipse by W.: Gary Gudzik, DSA

A total solar eclipse occurred on Monday, April 8, 2024, visible across North America and dubbed the Great North American Eclipse by some media. A solar eclipse occurs when the Moon passes between Earth and the Sun, thereby obscuring the image of the Sun for a viewer on Earth.

Celebrating Community and Tradition at Suffolk Lodge No. 60 AF&AM

As the season transitions to spring, it's a time of renewal and reflection on the recent achievements and camaraderie demonstrated by the brethren of Suffolk Lodge No. 60. Under the leadership of our Worshipful Master, Philip Lunarola, and the collective efforts of our officers and members, the lodge has been a hive of activity, showcasing the strength and spirit of our community both within and beyond the Masonic hall.

A highlight of our recent endeavors was our participation in the Port Jefferson Annual Ice Sculpture Festival in January—a first for Suffolk Lodge. Embracing the festive spirit, we commissioned a magnificent ice sculpture that elegantly intertwined our Masonic heritage with the artistic spectacle of the event. The sculpture, a majestic representation of a lion and a lamb, drawn from our lodge's traditional insignia, was adorned with the Square and Compasses and other mystic symbols. This intricate artwork captivated the imagination of the many thousands of visitors who flocked to our village for the festival, sparking curiosity and conversations about Freemasonry and its enduring symbols.

ENGAGED WITH OUR COMMUNITY

In true Masonic hospitality, we opened our doors to the community, continuing our beloved tradition of serving fresh, homemade cookies to the public. This simple yet profound act of kindness allowed us to welcome hundreds of people into our lodge, offering them not just sweet treats but a taste of the warmth and fellowship that defines our fraternity. The event was not just a fundraising endeavor; it was an opportunity to engage with our community, share insights about Freemasonry, and demonstrate the values we hold dear.

The success of our participation in the Port Jefferson Ice Sculpture Festival is a testament to the vibrant and active role Suffolk Lodge No. 60 plays in the local community. It reflects our commitment to fellowship, charity, and the pursuit of excellence, not only within the brotherhood but in our broader engagements with the public.

As we move forward, energized by the accomplishments of the past months, we remain dedicated to building on this momentum. We are committed to creating more opportunities for engagement, service, and the strengthening of the bonds that unite us as Freemasons. Our heartfelt thanks go to all those who contributed to making the festival a memorable event and to our community for their unwavering support and interest.

Here's to a spring filled with growth, unity, and continued success. May the spirit of brotherhood that illuminated our endeavors during the winter inspire us to reach new heights in the months to come.

W.: Philip Lunarola leads a recent table of instruction at Suffolk Lodge

Upholding the Essence of Traditional Observance at Suffolk Lodge No. 60

In the past year, Worshipful Master Philip Lunarola has made significant strides in reinforcing the essence of Traditional Observance Freemasonry at Suffolk Lodge No. 60. While our lodge may not bear the official title of a Traditional Observance Lodge, the practices and principles we adhere to embody the very core of what it means to be one. Under W.: Lunarola's stewardship, we've seen an enhanced commitment to the solemnity and depth of our rituals, educational pursuits, and the brotherly bond that Freemasonry champions.

SUFFOLK LODGE TRADITION

Traditional Observance Freemasonry emphasizes a profound respect for ritualistic excellence, the pursuit of Masonic knowledge, and the creation of a reflective, almost sacred atmosphere within lodge practices. This approach is characterized by meticulous attention to ritual, the incorporation of elements like evocative musical scores, purposeful lighting, and the use of incense to elevate the sensory experience of Masonic ceremonies. These enrichments, notably pioneered in our lodge by W.∴ Thomas Pace, have distinguished us within our district as paragons of ritualistic fidelity and innovation.

This year, W.∴ Lunarola has furthered our commitment to Masonic education by ensuring that it remains a focal point of every meeting. His introduction of a table of instruction following our formal communications has fostered a unique environment for intellectual and spiritual engagement. In this setting, brothers gather to share in food, refreshments, and contemplation, engaging in discussions punctuated by ceremonial toasts that are improvised on thematic lines. This practice, inspired by a visit to Quinta Essentia Lodge No. 500 in Connecticut, mirrors a European model of Masonry and deepens our collective Masonic understanding in a uniquely engaging manner.

W.: Lunarola's vision goes beyond the execution of rituals; it aims to cultivate a lodge atmosphere that mirrors a close-knit community of friends, deeply dedicated to our Masonic obligations and the traditions that have long defined our craft. The essence of Suffolk Lodge No. 60, shaped by these values and practices, stands as a testament to our identity as a de facto Traditional Observance Lodge, regardless of formal recognition.

Our lodge's journey under W.: Lunarola's leadership has been one of profound dedication to the Masonic principles that have historically guided our fraternity. By honoring the past while innovating for the future, Suffolk Lodge No. 60 continues to be a beacon of the Traditional Observance approach to Freemasonry—a living testament to our enduring commitment to the highest standards of brotherhood, education, and ritual excellence.

Feb. 29th, 2024 Master Mason Degree

In the early months of 2024, Suffolk Lodge No. 60 AF&AM witnessed remarkable moments of growth and brotherhood, underscoring the enduring values that have been the cornerstone of Freemasonry. These events not only enriched our lodge but also highlighted the promising future shaped by our newest members.

Raising Master Masons: A February to Remember

On February 29th, 2024, during a special communication, our lodge was privileged to raise six brothers to the sublime degree of Master Mason. Brothers Harrison Gudzik (a Lewis), Horace Alindogan, Carlos Gil, Michael Balamoti, William Rising, and Edward Henry exemplified the unique bond and commitment that is cultivated through the shared journey of the Masonic degrees. Their dedication was already evident through countless hours of volunteer service, contributing significantly to our fundraising events and beyond. Their presence in our lodge promises a bright and engaging future for all members.

April 4th, 2024 Entered Apprentice Degree

Welcoming Entered Apprentices: A New Beginning

The spirit of brotherhood and initiation continued into the spring as we welcomed a new class of Entered Apprentices on April 4th, 2024. Brothers Gregg Cohen, Russell Galati, Maxim Yatsenko, James McPhillips, Domingo Gaston, and David Brown embarked on their Masonic journey, marking the beginning of a path toward enlightenment and fraternity within Suffolk Lodge No. 60.

This ceremony was honored by the presence of R.:W.: Jeffrey G. Santorello, District Deputy Grand Master, and R.:W.: Russell Schwager, past Grand Steward. A highlight of the evening was the presentation of the Suffolk Masonic District pin by R.:W.: Jeffrey G. Santorello to our new Entered Apprentices, symbolizing their integration into the wider Masonic community

STRONGER THAN EVER!

W.: Thomas Pace and
new MM, Bro. Edward Henry

Special commendation is due to Bro. Edward Henry, who, fresh from his own elevation, performed excellently in his first role as a ritualist, answering the Q&As. W.: Thomas Pace's contributions, including the apron presentation and delivering the charge, were exemplary, demonstrating the high standards of ritual and ceremony at Suffolk Lodge.

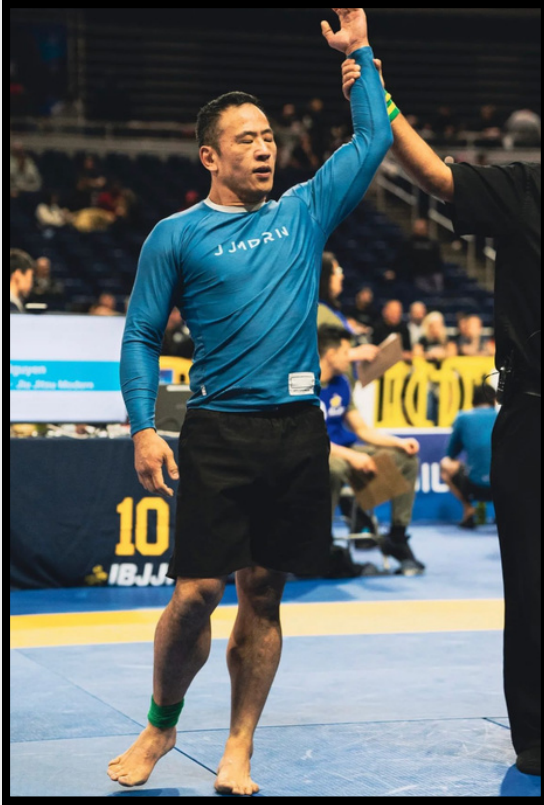

Forward Together

These recent initiations and elevations are a testament to the dynamic and thriving spirit of Suffolk Lodge No. 60 AF&AM. Each member's journey enriches our collective experience, fostering a deeper sense of connection and purpose. We look forward to the continued contributions of these brothers, confident that their involvement will further enhance the brotherhood and fellowship of our esteemed lodge.

Bro. Duy Nguyen, Senior Deacon

In the heart of our cherished fraternity, Suffolk Lodge No. 60 AF&AM, where the principles of brotherhood, morality, and personal growth are held in the highest regard, it is with immense pride that we recognize and celebrate the outstanding achievements of our Senior Deacon, Bro. Duy Nguyen. His recent victories at the 2024 International Brazilian Jiu Jitsu Federation in New York not only highlight his exceptional talent and dedication to the martial art but also exemplify the core values of Freemasonry.

Brother Duy's passion for Brazilian Jiu Jitsu, incorporating techniques from both Jiu Jitsu and Judo, has led him to remarkable success, clinching 1st place in No Gi and securing 2nd in Gi competitions. These achievements are a testament to his relentless pursuit of excellence, not just within the confines of our lodge as a guiding light and mentor to new brothers and as the meticulous conductor of our opening and closing ceremonies, but also in his personal endeavors outside the lodge.

His journey in Jiu Jitsu, marked by an impressive record of 26 wins and 8 losses, with 16 wins by submission and 10 wins by points, is a vivid illustration of his commitment, discipline, and hard work. Brother Duy's accomplishments serve as a sterling example of what it means to be a Freemason — embodying strength, resilience, and the continuous striving for personal growth and excellence.

CELEBRATING EXCELLENCE

As Brother Duy prepares for his upcoming competitions, including the IBJJF New Jersey in June and the National competition in Las Vegas later this year, we stand behind him with unwavering support and admiration. His achievements extend beyond the personal; they bring honor to Suffolk Lodge No. 60 AF&AM, reinforcing the values we hold dear and inspiring all of us to pursue our passions with equal fervor and dedication.

Please join us in extending heartfelt congratulations to Brother Duy Nguyen. We look forward to witnessing his continued success and are excited to see the heights he will reach in his competitive journey and in his role within our Masonic family. LEGACY OF LIGHT: PART I

GRANDFATHER

THE FREEMASONS.

Bill recounted the legacy of William John Rising, his namesake, born on May 21, 1897, and passing on September 14, 1960. A sergeant in the U.S. Army, he served valiantly in World War I with the 2nd Engineering Group, specializing in mine detection and demolition. Despite his father's German origins, he proudly fought for America, earning the lifelong nickname "Sarge" from those who knew him, including Bill's father, Thomas William Rising. Thomas, also a sergeant in the U.S. Army, was among the few survivors of the Bataan Death March during World War II. Both were emblematic of steadfast American patriotism.

LEGACY OF LIGHT: PART I

Guided by the Past, Shaping Freemasonry's Future

William John Rising's journey as a Freemason began around 1920, with his membership at a lodge located on Bowne Street in Flushing, New York. His commitment to service extended beyond the Masonic brotherhood to his role as a deacon in the Dutch Reformed Church, also in Flushing. Professionally, he climbed to the position of vice president for Sealtest Milk Products, although heart complications led to an early retirement and ultimately his demise in 1960.

Bill cherishes the memory of his grandfather not just for his accomplishments but for the character he embodied—respect, humility, kindness, and honesty. These virtues, reinforced through stories of the Masonic community, guided Bill toward seeking membership himself. Upon becoming a Master Mason, Bill carried a photograph of his grandfather in his suit jacket, close to his heart, as a reminder of the legacy he strives to continue.

Bill's story is a testament to the impact of exemplary character and the Masonic values passed down through generations. His journey from admiration to membership underscores the profound bond between Masons and the enduring influence of their teachings on individual lives.

Thank you, Bro. Bill, for entrusting us with your story. It's a powerful reminder of the values we hold dear in the Masonic community and the remarkable individuals who inspire us to embrace these ideals.

Raising the Next Generation of Masons at Suffolk Lodge

THERE ARE A FEW MOMENTS IN LIFE THAT YOU KNOW ARE GOING TO STICK WITH YOU FOREVER.

Playing the part of J-m for my son Harrison's Third Degree, and then Raising him was one of those moments. Some of you may know the pleasure of having seen your own son (or grandson) join the Lodge. It is a special thing, and it creates a bond between us that is unlike any other. I am particularly grateful to W.: Connolly and W.: Lunarola and the officers of Suffolk Lodge for affording me the opportunity to deliver the lectures for all three of Harrison's degrees. I have given them all before, but it was particularly meaningful to be able to explain the mysteries of our Craft to my own son and his classmates.

LEGACY OF LIGHT: PART II

I look forward to mentoring and guiding Harrison and our new Brothers through a long and rewarding Masonic career. These six new Brothers, along with the six others we Initiated last week, are the lifeblood of our Lodge. Our Northstar Program has prepared them for this journey, and it is now our job to give them the tools and provide a proper foundation for them to build their future moral and Masonic edifices. I am thrilled to see our Lodge growing in membership, thriving with activity, and meeting our financial challenges. This influx of positive energy from our new Brothers is helping to reinvigorate our Lodge. The work we've put into "doing Masonry" over the last few years is paying off in the best way.

I encourage all of my Brothers to get involved and show our new Brothers why Suffolk Lodge has always had the reputation of being the premier Lodge in the Suffolk District. We have been moving toward a more "traditional" form of Masonry where table lodges and agape feasts are a primary focus of many meetings. If you haven't been to Lodge in a while, please join us for a meeting and take part in a Lodge communication where business is brief, and educational, philosophical, and entertaining discussion is the focal point of the evening. And when we have degrees scheduled, come join us and renew your own Masonic obligations as we make new Masons together!

LEADERSHIP

Understanding the Cycle of Creation, Sustainability, and Decay

Submitted by W. Thomas Pace

In the grand tapestry of existence, from the smallest organisms to the most complex societal structures, everything follows a cycle of creation, sustainability, and decay. Effective leaders grasp this fundamental truth and navigate their leadership styles accordingly, adapting to the needs of the moment to optimize outcomes for all who he serves.

The Cycle of Creation, Sustainability, and Decay

Creation

Every innovation, idea, or system begins with a spark of creation. Whether it's a new product, a governing ideology, or a cultural movement, the initial phase is characterized by enthusiasm, energy, and vision. Effective leaders foster an environment that encourages creativity, risk-taking, and exploration during this stage.

Sustainability

Once an idea or system gains traction, it enters a phase of sustainability. This is when structures are solidified, processes are optimized, and resources are efficiently allocated to ensure longevity. Leaders in this phase focus on building strong foundations, fostering collaboration, and instilling a sense of purpose and ownership among their team members.

Decay

Despite efforts to sustain it, every system eventually begins to show signs of decay. External factors, internal inefficiencies, or shifts in the environment contribute to this inevitable decline. Effective leaders recognize the warning signs of decay and respond proactively, whether it's through innovation, restructuring, or letting go of outdated practices.

The Role of an Effective Leader

Sensitivity to the Cycle

A leader who understands the cycle of creation, sustainability, and decay is better equipped to anticipate and respond to change. By staying attuned to the pulse of their organization or community, they can identify opportunities for growth and address challenges before they escalate.

Adaptability in Leadership Style:

Effective leaders don't adhere rigidly to a single leadership style but instead adapt their approach based on the needs of the moment. During times of creation, they provide inspiration and support to nurture innovation. In the sustainability phase, they prioritize stability and efficiency while empowering their team members to take ownership. When faced with decay, they demonstrate courage and resilience, guiding their organization through necessary transformations.

Focus on Collective Benefit:

Ultimately, an effective leader recognizes that their role is not just to preserve the status quo but to steer their organization or community towards a future that benefits everyone. By fostering a culture of continuous learning, adaptability, and empathy, they create an environment where individuals can thrive and contribute their best efforts towards common goals.

Conclusion

The cycle of creation, sustainability, and decay is an inherent aspect of existence, applicable to all things, systems, and ideologies. Effective leaders embrace this reality, leveraging their awareness to guide their organizations through each phase with wisdom and foresight. By adapting their leadership styles and prioritizing the collective benefit, they enable individuals and communities to navigate change with resilience and purpose.

Leaders who fail to grasp the cycle of creation, sustainability, and decay risk leading their organizations towards inevitable downfall. Ignoring the signs of change or clinging stubbornly to outdated practices can result in stagnation, inefficiency, and ultimately, irrelevance. Such leaders may find themselves blindsided by shifts in the environment, ill-equipped to adapt and steer their organizations towards sustainable growth. Without a deep understanding of this fundamental cycle, leaders risk alienating their team members, losing trust, and failing to fulfill their responsibilities effectively. In essence, their inability to navigate the dynamic nature of existence condemns them and their organizations to a fate of obscurity and decline.
